Win a Complete Wrangler Overhaul worth $15,000 in Fully Installed Modifications

ExtremeTerrain is giving one lucky winner the ability to completely overhauling their rig by providing both game-changing parts and a complete installation

MALVERN, Pa. (April 26, 2016) – ExtremetTerrain.com, a leading aftermarket Jeep Wrangler parts supplier, is celebrating the change of seasons with their biggest overhaul prize pack ever. They are giving one lucky winner the ability to reinvent their Wrangler from the ground up, creating a dream build. Participants can enter weekly at <http://www.extremeterrain.com/custom-jeep-wrangler-build-sweepstakes.html> now through the end of August, 2016.

One Jeeper’s Dream Build is Around the Corner

Break an axle on the trail? Stuck in a swallowing snowdrift? Say no more. Offering the ultimate solution to any Wrangler owner’s woes, Extremeterrain is handing over $10,000 in aftermarket parts offered on their website along with another $5,000 credit for the lucky winner to have those parts installed at their local shop.

As a company built by and for Jeep enthusiasts, Extremeterrain wants to give everyone the chance to wheel their Wrangler with complete freedom. Without reservation, the giveaway lets the winner set the terms for their next adventure without being at the mercy of performance-limiting specs of the factory Jeep Wrangler. More than a simple prize pack, the giveaway is a chance for someone to live out the popular fantasy of building your beloved Wrangler into his or her version of the ultimate dream rig.

Running now through August 22, 2016, fans can enter multiple times, up to one entry a week. Must be 18 or older to enter and a legal resident of the United States or District of Columbia. For more information about the sweepstakes, please visit <http://www.extremeterrain.com/custom-jeep-wrangler-build-sweepstakes.html>.
